

DOLORES AND WALTER NEUSTADT LECTURE SERIES

Healing Division through Dialogue Lessons Learned from “American Values, Religious Voices”

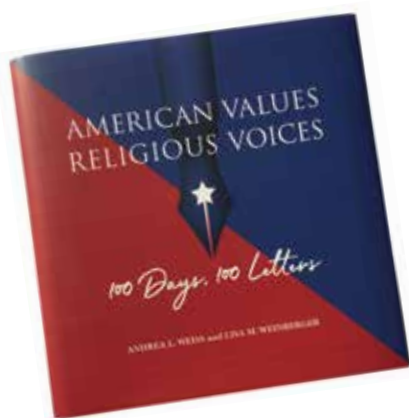

FEATURING

Rabbi Andrea L. Weiss, Ph.D.,
*Provost at Hebrew Union
College-Jewish Institute of Religion, renown scholar and author*

Thursday, April 11

7PM | Temple Emanu-El, Stern Chapel | 8500 Hillcrest Road

RSVP: participate.tedallas.org/rabbiandreaweiss

We welcome scholar-in-residence Rabbi Andrea L. Weiss, Ph.D., who organized the “100 Days, 100 Letters” project after the 2016 election. The letters connected core American values to our different religious traditions and were meant to help unify rather than further divide us. Dr. Weiss will reflect on the story of this fascinating project and how we can apply its lessons today.

